
Annapolis, April 4, 1785.

JOSEPH CLARK,

Architect, Builder, and Surveyor,

COMPOSES designs, draws plans, elevations, and sections of buildings of all kinds in civil architecture; makes out bills of scantling, and all other materials; makes calculations and estimates of the expence of the labour as well as the materials; values all kinds of work in buildings that is already executed; directs workmen, and surveys the execution of building; and will contract for the execution of any kind of building in civil architecture; surveys and plots lands, &c.

CARPENTERS.

I want to hire thirty journeymen carpenters; twelve months work will be infered them. I will give good encouragement to two men who understand lines, and have a capacity to command respect, and to lead a set of carpenters in their work.
